

Dr G. Bryan Young

Dr. Bryan Young graduated from the University of Saskatchewan in 1970. His neurological, EEG and epilepsy training was at the University of Western Ontario. Bryan subsequently worked at teaching hospitals in London, Ontario, Saskatoon and Toronto with his main clinical and research interest in neurocritical care. He is now semi-retired, working in Owen Sound, Ontario.

Bryan had joined the Canadian Neurological Society in 1976 during his neurology residency and he joined the Canadian Society of Clinical Neurophysiologists in 1978. Over the past 40 years, he has served on many committees of the CNSF and as Secretary-Treasurer and President of the CSCN. Bryan also served on the CNSF Board of Directors from 1990-1996 and from 2007-2013 and we are proud that he is also this year's recipient of the CNSF Distinguished Service Award.

Dr Young previously won the CJNS Reviewer of the Year award in 2004! After serving on the Editorial Board of the CJNS for many years Bryan became the Editor-in-Chief of the Canadian Journal of Neurological Sciences from 2007-2013.

Bryan continues to contribute articles and to review manuscripts for the CJNS. Thank you Dr Young.
